Market outlook

Construction

- The US building market outlook normalized to stable following expectations on longer lead times in investment decisions
- The US civil market remains strong and well-funded through existing federal funding programs
- The European outlook remains cautious for the building segment and stable for civil

Residential Development

- Good level of activity in the Central European housing market
- Lower than normal market activity in the Nordic housing market
- Increased macroeconomic uncertainty impacts private individuals' confidence and the pace of recovery negatively in the Nordics

Commercial Property Development

- Transaction market activity returning to Europe but lagging in the USA
- Occupier market stable in Europe and improving for grade-A space in the USA
- Clear flight to quality trend

Investment Properties

- Polarized occupier market - stronger demand for high quality space than older stock.
- Competitive market but rents expected to remain mostly stable

Outlook compared to previous quarter ● Weaker ● Unchanged ● Improved

Group Summary

- Group performance in the first quarter
 - Growing revenue and solid margins within Construction
 - Increased macroeconomic uncertainty impacting Residential Development sales
 - Two project starts and no divestments recorded within Commercial Property Development
